

Gordon Wildlife Rehabilitation Center
www.gordonwildlife.org

Wildlife Intake Form

There are no wrong answers. We need to know as much as we can about the true condition of the animal in order to be able to give it the best chance at survival.

Type of animal: _____ How many animals? _____

Your name: _____ Date: _____

Your address: _____

Your county of residence: _____

Phone: _____ email: _____

Exact address where animal was found: _____

What condition was it in? _____

Please describe its behavior: _____

How was it captured? (i.e. bare hands, gloves, with a blanket, covered with a box etc.)

Please name anyone who handled or came into contact with the animal in any way and indicate ages: _____

Was anyone scratched or bitten? _____ Did a pet contact the animal? _____

Was food or drink offered to the animal? _____

How much time passed before you brought the animal in? _____

We are a volunteer-run nonprofit often working out of our own pockets. Would you like to donate towards the costs of caring for this animal? _____

Sign & date: _____

 By signing above you acknowledge that there is inherent risk in all human handling of or interaction with wildlife. You agree to take full and willing responsibility for all risks, known and unknown, resulting from interaction with wildlife and agree to hold Gordon Wildlife and all its agents harmless against any damages resulting from such interactions, including but not limited to, personal illness, injury or death and loss, damage or destruction of property. Gordon Wildlife accepts no responsibility whatsoever for any losses, injuries, personal or property damages which the you or your friends, family or pets suffer or incur as a result of any wildlife interactions, including but not limited to, those resulting from actions taken in the service of or as directed by Gordon Wildlife. You agree to release and hold harmless Gordon Wildlife from and against any and all claims, causes of action, proceedings, or liabilities that you may have against Gordon Wildlife.